

CHRISTMAS

At Christmas we rejoice anew in the wonder of that Holy night when a Child was born in a humble manger, bringing hope to all the world.

At Christmas, we gladly greet our friends, with all good wishes for health, happiness and a holiday season filled with many joys and blessings.

Nineteen hundred and sixty-two years ago the shepherds keeping watch in the fields near Bethlehem heard the Heavenly Host proclaim the birth of a Savior.

The Child was to be found lying in a manger. And there was the Star that the shepherds followed and they found the Child as the angels said.

The Christmas Story, which never grows old, will be told again this week-end in all the churches of Christendom.

Christmas, which marks the birth of Christ, and Easter, which marks His resurrection, are the two highlights of the Christian year and the churches are thronged with worshippers.

Voters Give Green Light To L W Expansion Plans

Voters of Lincoln-Way high school district approved a $750,000 building bond issue at a special referendum last Saturday, Dec. 15.

This was the third time this year that the issue came up for decision and this time was the charm.

The issue carried by a vote of 1,451 to 1,259 for a margin of 192 votes. The bonds were rejected the first time, last February, by 97 votes. Then in April when the proposal was submitted the second time it was really clobbered, losing by about 700 votes.

Following that defeat the high school board said it would not call for another bond election until requested to do so by the electorate. The Parent Teacher Group, of which John Porick of Mokena is president, entered the picture then. The parents were not eager to pay more taxes but on the other hand they wanted to be sure that would be enough room at the school to accommodate the growing enrollment.

The PTG began soliciting support for the project and submitted a petition, that in its final form carried the names of almost 2,000 district residents, to the board. The petitioners asked that another election be called. They also said they would vote for it but apparently some either forgot or reneged on promise because there were some 1,900 who pledged to support the issue, or about 500 more than voted "yes" on the proposition.

The bond issue was approved in all of the voting precincts but two, Manhattan and New Lenox. It failed in both of these places before and in April it was really downed in New Lenox. This time, however, it lost by only four votes in New Lenox, 550 to 546.

There were 10 spoiled ballots there and from the marking it was said that the voters intended to vote yes. With that 10 it would have carried in New Lenox by six votes.

Manhattan beat the proposed building program by 65 votes, 256 to 191. There were four spoiled ballots there.

The proposition carried in the other precincts as follows:

Arbury Hills, 87 to 31, six spoils.

Lincoln Estates, 74 to 32, two spoils.

Frankfort, 211 to 167, two spoils.

Mokena, 342 to 223, seven spoils.

Last April the proposed was soundly beaten in Frankfort and also lost in Mokena.

Most of the ballots counted as spoils were "yer" votes, it was said. The ballots were thrown out because the voters failed to mark them with an X in the square alongside the proposition. They either indicated their choice with a check mark or wrote in the word "yes," or "no." A ballot so marked, it was pointed out, is invalid.

The Lincoln-Way high school board is gratified that the bond issue is finally approved so it can go ahead with plans for the addition, a spokesman said.

Present enrollment at the school is almost at the 1,000 mark and next September it is expected the school population will be over 1,100. The school is too small for the current enrollment, officials say, so expansion of the facilities is a necessity.

Plans for the addition include 25 more classrooms, three large rooms for physical education, addition facilities for administration, guidance and health work and a maintenance garage for the school buses.

Mr. Patrick expressed the appreciation of the PTG to those who took an active part in getting out the vote and since the PTG was supporting the issue the members are gratified that the proposal carried.

Fine Conductor For Blocking Auto Traffic

It cost Herbert Syles, of Blue Island, a Rock Island freight conductor, $5 last Thursday for holding the Schoolhouse road crossing too long.

A train blocked the crossing for 25 minutes and persons who wanted to use the road became irked at the long wait and complained to Mokena Police Chief Vernon Bormet.

Bormet arrested the conductor and brought him before Police Magistrate James Surovick. The judge imposed a fine of $15 but suspended it and put Syles on 60-day probation. Should he block another crossing in Mokena he will have to pay the old fine plus a new one. Syles paid the $5 costs.

Trim Weitendorf District: Talk Possible Dissolution

With a part of the Weitendorf school district, No. 154, detached and annexed to the Mokena grade school district, No. 159, a move is now on foot for a further division which would dissolve the Weitendorf district.

It has been proposed that the portion lying south of U.S. 30 be annexed to the Frankfort grade school district and the part north be joined to the Mokena district.

At a meeting of the Will county board of school trustees last week a square mile of Weitendorf territory immediately south of the Mokena district was ordered detached from the Weitendorf district and made a part of the Mokena district. The change becomes effective July 1, 1963.

At present there are 43 pupils in Weitendorf school. There are six pupils in the mile of territory to be detached. The bonded debt of the Weitendorf district is $14,500. The property in the detached area is assessed approximately one-seventh of this amount, which means it will bring a little over $2,000 of indebtedness into the Mokena district, it was explained by County School Superintendent, Verne E. Crackel.

Move to detach from the Weitendorf school was instigated by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fueley. They pointed out that while it would cost more to belong to the Mokena school district the children would be better served there than to remain in Weitendorf.

The proposal came first before the county school trustees last summer but was dropped when it was found that the petition was defective. There was an error in the legal description of the territory involved.

Proponents of the division prepared another petition -- this time with the aid of the Joliet law firm of Pistilli and Pistilli. The petition was filed early in the fall but was not heard until last week. Time of the hearing made no difference, it was pointed out, because if the change were ordered, as it was, it wouldn't be effective until next summer anyway.

Since this change has been ordered others in the district are becoming interested in further changes and it is understood that petitions will be filed with the county school trustees asking for dissolution of the Weitendorf district and annexation to the Frankfort and Mokena districts with U.S. 30 as the dividing line.

There also has been talk-said to have originated in the Schmuhl school district--of a proposed merger of the Weitendorf and Reiter districts with Schmuhl.

As far as can be determined people in Reiter and Weitendorf district are rather cool on this proposition. Schmuhl district is having its troubles and Reiter and Weitendorf residents are reported to be as not eager to share them.

Several years ago before School school expanded its building and teaching staff County Superintendent Crackel wanted the directors to seek dissolution of the district and annex it to New Lenox.

Some of the people there want to do that now. On the other hand there are people who want the district to remain on its own and the directors are reported divided on the issue too.

3 More Coupon Winners; Contest To End Dec. 24

Three more prize winners were drawn on Monday of this week in the contest sponsored by certain local merchants for the benefit of customers.

There is nothing to buy nor does the winner have to be present when the drawing is made. There is nothing about this contest that can be interpreted as a lottery.

All one has to do to enter is fill out the coupons printed elsewhere in this paper and deposit them in the containers in the stores named. There will be another drawing next Monday, the last in a series of three.

Each week $75 in gift certificates, redeemable in the stores of the merchants sponsoring the contest, has been awarded.

First prize is $35 in gift certificates, second prize is $25 and third prize is $15.

Winner of first prize this week was Mrs. Charles Gilgen, of New Lenox, who deposited her winning coupon in the Ryder Sinclair oil station at Mokena. Second prize, $25 in gift certificates, went to Mrs. Catharine Keuch, Tinley Park. Her ticket was deposited at the Orland-Palos DX station at Orland Park, and third prize, $15 went to Mrs. Ann Hinspeter, Mokena, whose winning ticket was deposited at the Mokena Pharmacy.

The tickets are collected on Monday and drawing conducted at Lemont.

AN ERROR WE'RE GLAD WE MADE

Last week in reporting on the fire in the home owned by Robert Fredin, located on Francis Rd. in Mokena, we stated that the farm was owned by the late Andrew Cappel. We are happy to report that he is not the "late" Andrew Cappel. He is "still alive and going strong," as he reported in a letter to us.

HOLIDAY TREAT -- Fruit and Rice Cheese Pie with fruit and rice topping, a delightful, easy-to-make holiday treat.

Fruit And Rice Cheese Pie A Do-Ahead Christmas Treat

The list of special desserts for the Christmas season never seems to be quite long enough to cover all the holiday parties. Here, then, is a dessert to add to that list and to serve often during the festive season, for it's one to sing carols about! It's an intriguing new variation of the ever-favorite cheese pie, with fluffy rice added to the lemony filling and creamy topping. Fruit, nuts and a lemon-cookie crumb crust complete the pie and round out the fascinating combination of flavors and textures.

Fruit and rice cheese pie is a do-ahead dessert, the kind always so welcome during the season's busy days. It can be made when convenient, even a day ahead of serving, if desired. The crust is a no-bake one, another help when time is at a premium. The filling is a snap to make. Lemon-flavored gelatin, dissolved in water, is chilled until thickened, then combined with sweetened cream cheese, flavored cooked rice and whipped cream before turning into the crust. Making the topping is simpler still, accomplished with a few strokes of the mixing spoon.

Rice gives both the filling and the topping extra body, flavor and more interesting texture. As only 1 1/2 cups are needed for the dessert, time can be saved by planning to serve rice for luncheon or dinner on the day the pie is to be made, and cooking enough extra at the same time to use in the pie.

Fruit and Rice Cheese Pie is a sophisticated dessert that's attractive and delicious not only at Christmas time but on any other festive occasion of the year.

FRUIT AND RICE CHEESE PIE
1 box (10 1/2 oz.) lemon wafers
1/4 pound butter or margarine, melted

1 package (3 oz.) lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 package (8 oz.) cream cheese
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup cooked rice
2 tablespoons liquid from cherries

1/2 pint heavy cream, whipped
Fruit and Rice Topping*
Crush lemon wafers into fine crumbs. Add melted butter and mix well. Press onto bottom and sides of a 10-inch pie plate to form a crust. Chill.

Dissolve lemon-flavored gelatin in hot water; add lemon rind. Chill until it becomes a heavy syrupy consistency.

Cream cream cheese with sugar. Beat into gelatin mixture. Combine rice and liquid from cherries. Stir into gelatin mixture. Fold in the whipped cream.

Turn into lemon wafer crust. Chill about 30 minutes. Spread with Fruit and Rice Topping* and continue chilling until set, about 2 to 4 hours. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

FRUIT AND RICE TOPPING

2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup chopped green maraschino cherries

Bethlehem Star Topic Of Lecture

"The Star of Bethlehem" is the timely subject of the lecture-demonstration at the Chicago Park District Adler Planetarium and Astronomical Museum during this month. This lecture, said Robert I. Johnson, planetarium director, is presented annually because of popular demand.

The skies of the Holy Land as they appeared at the time of the Nativity, and the known astronomical phenomena which took place then are demonstrated. The nature of these objects and events are explained and the lecturer speculates as to which of them might have been interpreted as the Star.

Lecture-demonstrations, or shows, are given at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, at 12:30, 2:00 and 3:30 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. A special children's show is presented each Saturday at 11 a.m. The planetarium will be closed Christmas Day.

Admission to the Museum building is free at all times. Admission to the Planetarium Chamber where the shows are held is 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children.

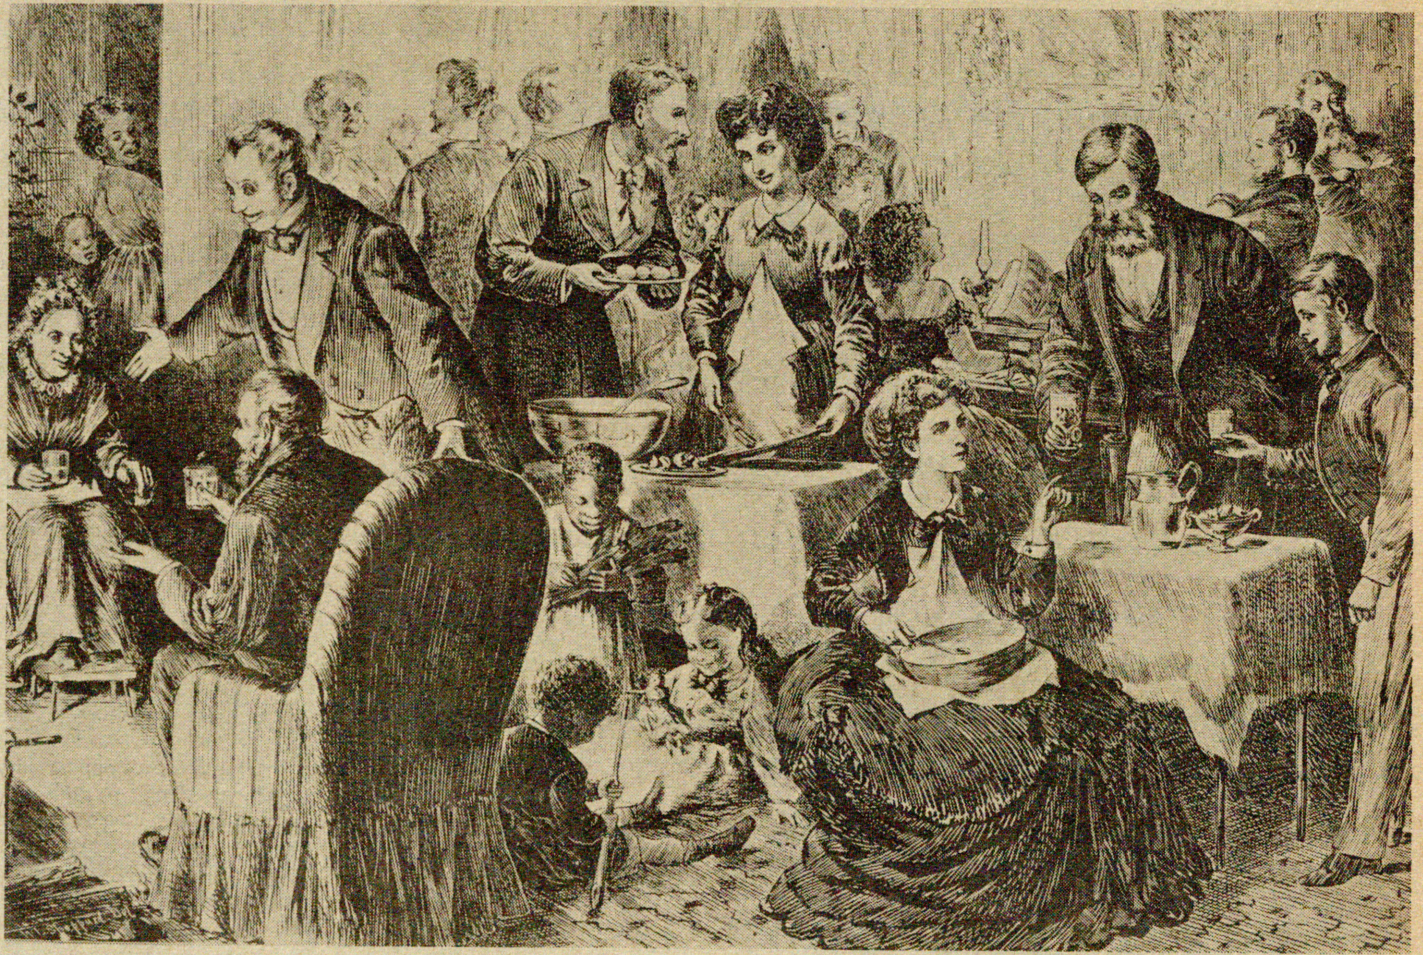

Christmas In History: Once It Was Illegal ...

Celebration of Christmas -- the most widely observed religious holiday of the modern world -- was at one time illegal in early American history.

Colonial New England did not celebrate Christmas, according to researchers at Compton's Pictured Encyclopedia, because the stern Puritan colonists believed that such activities were wholly pagan and forbade them by law. Christmas came to the American colonies while it was the subject of strenuous controversy in England. English Puritans condemned it as "popish" and the secular celebration as a "wanton Bacchanalian feast."

Opposition of the English Puritans to festivals culminated in an act of Parliament in 1647 which abolished the observance of Christmas, Easter and Whitsuntide. This was echoed in the American colonies in 1659 when Puritans enacted a law in the general court of Massachusetts to punish those who "kept Christmas."

The law read "Whosoever shall be found observing any such day as Christmas or the like, either by forbearing of labor, feasting, or in any other way ... shall be subject to a fine of five shillings."

CHRISTMAS IN THE SOUTH -- An Eggnog Party.

(drawn by W. L. Sheppard)

"The churches of the Presbyterians, Baptists, and Methodists were not open on Dec. 25 except where some Mission Schools had a celebration. They do not accept the day as a Holy One, but the Episcopalian, Catholic and German Churches were all open. Inside they were decorated with evergreens."

IN THE twentieth century, all denominations have embraced Christmas widely both as a religious and as a social celebration. Today, men, women and children in every Christian land crowd into churches to give their thanks. More than one fourth of the world's population--about 800 million people profess some form of Christian faith.

Christmas observances is very different from the humble stable in Bethlehem where Christ was born; but the message He brought to the world is the same--"Glory be to God in the highest; and on earth peace, The splendor and beauty of good will toward men."

Holiday At-Home Fashions Carry More Feminine Look

For fireside chats or informal entertaining, at-home fashions have taken on a more feminine look. Typical of the new look are long evening skirts...worn with a variety of good-looking tops as a change from pants costumes.

Growing in popularity all over the country, the ankle-length skirts suit the mood of young hostesses who go in for elegant informality. With the holiday party season at hand, why not make your own long skirt for evening? Paired with a coordinated blouse, it's the perfect answer for entertaining and can be worn for almost any occasion.

Like most women, you probably have at least one special occasion on the season's agenda. If not, you'll find excuse enough to create one after seeing the fabulous holiday cottons that now abound on piecegoods counters.

As a general rule, the more sumptuous fabrics -- like glowing cotton velvets and velveteens, luxurious cotton suedes, and rich cotton brocades look best in simple, flowing lines. Handsome homespun, gay prints, and novelty textured cottons take on an air of casual elegance when cut along regal lines.

New in the plush fabric picture are a number of sculptured cotton velvets in patterns combining either tone on tone or contrasting colors. Screen-printed velvets and velveteens in floral and abstract designs are especially lush. And, in addition to perennially popular shades like ruby red, emerald green, and gold, velveteen is sporting a new color called pewter. A pale shade of silver gray, it's tailor-made for the woman who's looking for something different.

Cotton suede, a newcomer in the field of plush fabrics has a soft elegant hand and drapes beautifully. You'll find it in rich solids and intricate paisleys.

For a rustic effect, make your skirt in a textured or novelty woven cotton which has a hand-loomed look.

Especially at Christmas,
When we see the candles glow,
When we see the glistening beauty,
Of the newly fallen snow.
We should think of that first Christmas,
And the star that shone so bright,
As the heavenly host of angels,
Sang of the glory of that night.

Especially at Christmas,
When we think of those so dear,
And the good times that we shared with them,
All throughout the year,
We should think of all our blessings,
Not accept them as our part,
But be thankful to our Savior,
Offer prayers right from the heart.

Especially at Christmas,
When we're busy as can be,
Signing cards, selecting gifts,
And putting up the tree,
Let's remember that the meaning
Of Christmas time is still,
A time to love thy neighbor,
And peace to men of good will.

USO Center At Chicago Plans On Busy Holiday

For the thirteenth consecutive year members of the American Women's Voluntary Services will sponsor the Christmas Day festivities at Chicago's USO Center, 187 N. Clark St. Approximately 1500 members of the armed forces who will be unable to return home for the holiday season are expected to attend.

From Dec. 22 thru 29 the Hanukkah Festival of Lights will be observed at the Center. During this period the traditional Menorah will stand on a table beside the Creche provided annually by the Supreme Council Ladies of Isabella. The Hanukkah candle lighting ceremony will be held each evening at sundown by representatives from the Chicago Board of Rabbis and the Chicago Jewish Welfare Board Armed Services Council.

Holiday festivities started officially at the USO Center on Friday, Dec. 14, with the hanging of the greens and opening of the gift wrapping booth. Servicemen and women can have their gifts wrapped free of charge at the center.

The USO Center will be open all night on Christmas Eve. Junior Volunteers will escort servicemen to Catholic and Protestant midnight services.

Staff and volunteers operating the USO Center overnight on Christmas Eve will be provided by the Chicago Jewish Welfare Board Armed Services Council. Breakfast will be served at 9:00 a.m., Christmas Day, and Christmas dinner, turkey and the trimmings, will be served at noon.

Members of the armed forces will be given free telephone calls home at the Center on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

The USO Travelers' Aid Lounge in Union Station will also be amply provided with ham, turkey and assorted goodies during the holiday season for servicemen passing thru town.

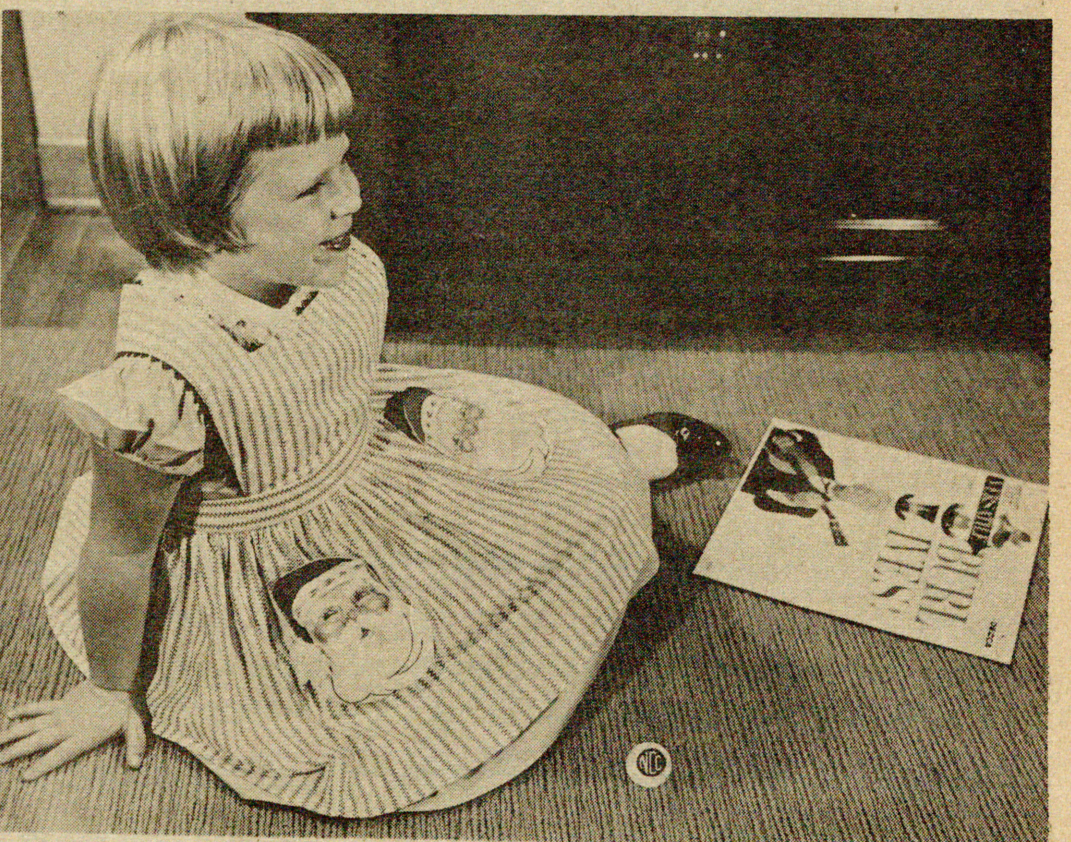

DECORATIVE AND TASTY -- These little Christmas Trees are easy to prepare, excellent for decoration and delicious to eat.

STORYBOOK FASHION -- Inspired by Grimm Brothers' fairy tales is this mock jumper tunic dress of cream and blue cotton. A laced bodice sets off daintily embroidered yoke and sleeves. The dress is one of 11 in a special holiday collection by Joseph Love.

HOLIDAY TABLE -- A Christmas party will be more festive and fun if you make your own decorations, such as this luncheon set. Use cotton bags, appliqued with poinsettias and trimmed with rickrack. If you're a hostess who likes to be in style, borrow the tablecloth design for an apron.

YULETIDE PINAFORE -- Designed to win a young lady's fancy: a Christmasy red pinafore made from a striped cotton bag and trimmed with festive rickrack. The Santa Claus faces are tacked onto real pockets and can be removed easily for post-holiday wear. It's practical yet whimsical enough for little hostesses to wear while entertaining.

Mokena C. of C. To Honor Six Outstanding Citizens

The Mokena Chamber of Commerce is to honor six of the community's outstanding citizens at a dinner meeting to be held in the Lincoln-Way high school cafeteria the night of Jan. 19.

This will be the first such program to be conducted by the Mokena Chamber but it plans to make it an annual event.

The six chosen for awards, that will be in the form of plaques, include two women, Mrs. Margaret Semmler, former newspaper publisher who was identified with papers in the area for more than 40 years, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel, who retired last June as superintendent of the Mokena grade schools after a long and continuous service in the education of Mokena youth.

The men are Dr. Ernest McMahon, a practicing physician in the community for many years; the Rev. William J. Riemann, former pastor of St. John's United Church of Christ, now retired; Arthur Omland, who has accomplished much in the promotion of Boy Scout work in Mokena, and Robert Munch, a young man who is Mokena's only Eagle Scout and has been quite active in Scout work.

"We are honoring six this year to make up for lost time," explained Mayor Charles Swanberg who is chairman of the committee arranging the affair.

He explained that while the dinner is primarily a Chamber of Commerce activity it will be open to all residents of the village.

"We believe the friends of those selected as outstanding citizens will want to be present when the awards are made," Mayor Swanberg said, "so we will give them the opportunity."

Tickets for the dinner will be available next week. They may be purchased at the Mokena pharmacy or at the Swanberg Implement Co., or members of the Chamber.

A Christmas Message

(Editor's note: We had planned to write a Christmas editorial but on opening our mail we found it included the annual Christmas message of the Episcopal Bishop of the Diocese of Chicago, the Rt. Rev. Gerald Francis Burrill, whose charge includes all of this area.

We reproduce the message here because we feel that it catches the spirit of the times as well as the spirit of the season.

In the rush and bustle of the secular preparation for Christmas, and in the midst of anxieties and troubles occasioned by this nuclear age, it is good to have something to cling to that has ever-been and is everlasting the love of God.

Anyone, regardless of his faith or creed, can read the bishop's message with profit to himself, his family and community.)

"In this age of propaganda the golden word is 'communication'. Those who seek to influence the thinking of others make use of every technological skill to communicate their ideas, whether good or bad.

"We are bombarded by the human voice on radio and television, and drowned in the flood of written words in newspapers and magazines. To communicate even more comprehensively we are not attempting to use man-made stars in outer space. The ideas we communicate, however, bring no peace but only continuing turmoil.

"Into this confusion of sound and fury comes the simple message of Christmas, first announced by the Star of Bethlehem, of God's Peace through His Incarnate Word.

"Today's world is confused and perilous, yet the message of Christmas still brings the assurance of peace. It is a message that is profound and full of mystery yet simple enough for a child to understand: God loves us, every last one of us.

"In the midst of the babble of communications the promise of Christmas rings out: 'Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world.'

"In these anxious times let us enjoy the assurance of God's eternal love. And may His blessing rest upon us all in this Holy Season."

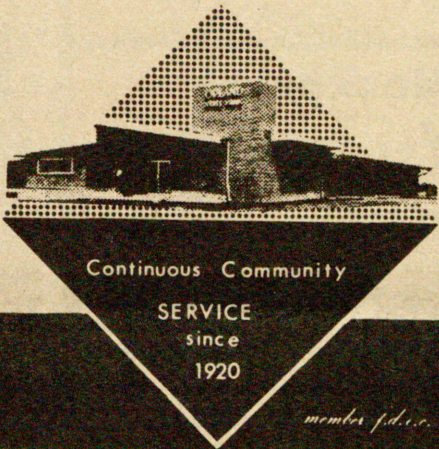

"Our Story of the Christmas Carol"

The warmth, joy and "spirit" of this season is oftentimes expressed by the singing of carols. Carols that lift us "up above" the fast hum-drum pace, to the quiet, simple, peaceful atmosphere beyond. Here the true environment surrounds the season. This is the plateau far above the clatter, from which we wish to express our sincere "thank you" for your patronage in 1962, and extend from the Officers and Directors...Seasons Greetings.

SEASON'S Greetings

It happens every year at about this time. Somehow, hearts are lighter; friendships are warmer; a new spirit of good cheer is abroad in the land. On Second Thot

By GLENN F. LOGAN

Christmas is not only a season of rejoicing and good cheer—a time when at least for once in the year people think kindly of others and endeavor to relieve want or loneliness. It is also -- let's face it -- a dangerous season. And the danger takes many forms.

Because of the emphasis placed on it by public print and voice we are quite likely to figure that the No. 1 spoiler is the traffic toll.

It is true that traffic mishaps do take a fearful toll at Christmas time. Driving a car today is a job and rush, bustle and excitement causes too many to forget it -- they are thinking of too many other things and fail to keep their minds on their work.

Time was when a goodly number of our citizens suffered fatal burns or were heavily singed in Christmas tree fires. We still have such fires, of course, but people are more careful now. Or maybe we had better put it this way -- people have been told so many times about what to look out for and guard against to prevent Yuletide fires that following proposed safeguards has become routine.

But it is easy to be careless and so we continue to have fire on the list of Christmas perils.

Thanks to the wonder drugs pneumonia is not the killer that it used to be so outdoor carol singing is no longer dangerous. Even the tone deaf people who seem to be always present on such occasions are safe from bodily injury today.

But that is easy to understand. There are so many tone deaf people billed on TV, radio or records as stars today that it seems likely the public has come to accept this as the mark of an artist. Maybe most of the listeners are tone deaf too.

Anyway it seems that if one is to be a big success as a singer today and command a fabulous salary he must be able to sing off key, flat all his notes and sound like all the others making a living that way. Oh yes, it helps too if one sings thru his or her nose.

Such things may offend the esthetic sense but have no harmful effects to one's physical being. And one way to preserve one's physical self is to be careful in buying toys.

Don't buy toys with sharp points or sharp edges, safety experts warn and it is a good warning to heed. The theory behind this admonition is to prevent injury to the child. It is possible that the child may injure himself but the betting favors the little, the little -- well, let's say darling and so escape any hassle with parents... the little darling to escape without a scratch. Some of his playmates may suffer injury and the parents are al-

the season is here! Merry, again. We wish you and your family a generous share of all its many blessings.

most darn well certain of being cut, stabbed or bruised.

The thinking parent will also make sure that the toys he buys are all finished and ready for breaking or losing. Some of the manufacturers have found that by selling toys that must be assembled or put together by the purchaser or the father of the recipient they can save a tidy sum of money that otherwise would have been expended on labor.

Unless the person putting such toys together is a machinist or a A-1 mechanic he can figure on long hours, bugged up fingers and damage to his disposition. And if the toy is really complicated it would be just as well if the wife and mother packed up the children and went away for a week or two.

Any suggestions as to toy safety as a means of saving parents from injury are not intended for those who believe in giving children an opportunity to go their unrestricted ways. There's no use.

About the only thing that can relieve such a situation is to have the parents go unrestricted too. If the youngster wants a hand grenade, give it to him; if he wants a shotgun, give it to him; if he wants gunpowder dynamite, a jug of sulphuric acid, a motorcycle, or a straight razor, let him have what he wants. Who knows? Perhaps he will put an end to his parents as well as himself.

That should make it easier on the neighbors. Some of these days the insurance companies will impose a higher rate on premiums for life and catastrophe policies for parents of uninhibited children. It would be a good thing too for such parents to carry public liability and property damage.

One of the remarkable things to appear in news releases concerning toy selections this year is advice by an expert in child development. She states what every mother knows that the smaller, small fry usually prefer common house hold article to expensive toys -- pie tins, wooden bowls, wooden spoons, empty thread spools, muffin pans, bright colored plastic measuring cups, sieves and those empty plastic containers that were originally used for cottage cheese or ice cream.

Things that are difficult to throw yet light enough not to do damage if they are thrown offer an ideal combination.

Incidentally a pie tin or a muffin pan are about the only thing a child can't break or swallow. They come complete and don't have to be bolted, glued or welded.

Parents like that. And parents don't take them away from the children to see how they work.

The kids like that. Any small, small fry on your Christmas lists? Now you know what to give 'em.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

As co-chairmen of the industrial promotion committee of the Mokena Chamber of Commerce, we would like to express our appreciation of the special time and effort which must have been devoted to your presentation of the vital necessity of early completion of FAI 80 between Hazel Crest and Joliet, as published in your Dec. 6, 1962 issue of The News-Bulletin.

We believe that few towns of our size, can boast of having their weekly newspaper show enough interest to study local problems closely. The metropolitan dailies cannot possibly have detailed interest in our problems.

Mokena and Frankfort as well as the other towns in the Golden Triangle have a really vital interest in the completion of this expressway prior to the close of 1965. Certainly the high level bridge should not be permitted to saddle us with economic and social penalties which may be heavier than we can bear.

Politics plays a heavy part in location and sequence of their building. The power of when and where to locate highways can be the power of destruction. A mistake in location and timing can be a tragedy to a town or city altho it is only a mistake to the engineers and politicians who handled the matter.

FAI 80 is now complete almost to the low border where it will connect with a completed section of I 80 some time in the distant future. The area between Hazel Crest and Joliet is generally accepted as an area which will have a population explosion beginning about next spring. A glance at the map shows the area's potential industrial importance and such a highway would connect the already waiting normal traffic over FAI 80 as completed via the toll roads from the east coast and give access to north and south main highways and to US #66 West of Joliet.

We have heard of a planning mistake made as to an expressway between Baltimore and Washington. It was decided that pending the rather slow building of the expressway, that traffic would continue to flow over Sibley Boulevard which was even then inadequate to handle the traffic which was growing fast.

The accident rate on Sibley Boulevard mounted so fast that newspaper critics began referring to the highway as "Bloody Sibley." We believe that US #30 as a substandard two lane highway, cannot possibly handle the traffic which is bound to generate prior to 1965 and that the traffic accident rate will not be a recommendation for the manner in which the whole has been handled.

We will all suffer by delay in building of I 80 and the penalties to be paid by Joliet itself will not be small. Few people in this area care to travel #30 even now and this is not reflecting the large traffic build-up already started.

Some apologists suggest that the population buildup will not start until after construction of I 80. Study of the situation will reveal that I 80 may increase the population, but its present increases will come from changing industrial patterns and social and economic reasons that are pressing RIGHT NOW.

We cannot stop the population flow, but we can hope that we can keep it in some kind of balance with industrial buildup. If the area becomes predominantly residential, we are destined to become "bedroom area" and such areas usually also become slum areas which are avoided by industry -- the tax dislocation is seldom brought into balance again.

Thank you again for your interest in the area.

Very truly yours,

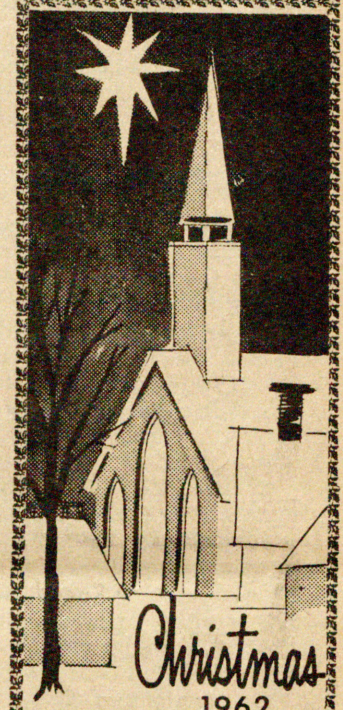

Daniel L. Kurber.

Walter W. Welsch.

Mincemeat, Apple Butter

By Roberts Mann.
Conservation Editor,
Forest Preserve District
In November, 1895, after a ten-mile drive on a cold gray afternoon, big red Ned trotted into the barnyard at our old home place just after grandmother had taken six large loaves of bread from the oven. Half frozen, we clambered out of the buggy and she met us at the kitchen door with hot slices of crust, generously buttered, thickly smeared with spicy, dark brown apple butter. That was 67 years ago but I can still taste it.

There were many ways of making apple butter. It seems to have been concocted, independently, by housewives of several countries in the "apple belt" of northern Europe. The simplest of those recipes merely required "good sweet apples and pure sweet cider." The pared and cored apples and the cider were boiled, "stirring constantly until the whole is a rich dark pulp."

SOME FOLKS believed that the best apple butter was made without cider. The apples, cut in eighths, were boiled in a small amount of water until tender, and put thru a sieve. After adding 4 tablespoons of sugar per cup of pulp, it was cooked and stirred until thick. They might put in a small amount of lemon juice and grated rind. German and Pennsylvania Dutch cooks used 2 qts. water and 1-1/2 qts. cider per gallon sliced apples, 1-1/2 lbs. sugar and one teaspoon, each, of ground cinnamon, cloves and allspice. Sticks of cinnamon were "still better yet."

In early times most farms had an orchard bearing several kinds of apples from which, each year, they made barrels of cider, 20 or more gallons of apple butter, and mincemeat. Apple butter making was an event as important as butchering and maple sugaring. On the day before, subhubs of apples were pared, cored and cut into pieces by the women folk -- including neighbors. Some had little paring machines. Copper kettles were preferred because the sticky stuff was less apt to be tainted by scorching, but grandma had a 30-gallon iron one, brightly polished inside. It was set up in the yard and, before daybreak, we youngsters poured in the water and built a fire under it. After the water boiled, the cider and apples were added, and all day we took turns at stirring it continuously with a long-handled, perforated, wooden paddle. When it was dark brown, thick and smooth, that spicy butter was ladled into large stone crocks and jars to be stored in the cellar.

For dinner on Thanksgiving Day and Christmas, one of my grandmothers cooked a goose and the other roasted a turkey, but they both served pumpkin pie and hot mince pie. Grocery stores sold mincemeat then -- the same brand on sale in markets today -- but they made their own.

RECIPES for mincemeat varied as much as those for apple butter. Some housewives used more ingredients than others and took more pains in making it. The ingredients depended upon the tastes, traditions and prejudices of their families. Straight-laced cooks used fresh sweet cider or none at all. Others, more tolerant, used hard cider and maybe something stronger. Nowadays, here in Chicago, pie manufacturers add cheap brandy and rum to

Gives Income Picture For Southwest Suburbs

(CNS) What's the income picture in the Southwest suburbs?
Palos Heights with $10,000 led southwest suburban municipalities population 2,500 and over in median family income in 1960 the northeastern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission reports.
Evergreen Park ranks second with $8,761 followed by Oak Lawn with $8,588.
Other Southwest suburbs with their median family income rank as follows: Hickory Hills, $7,870; Tinley Park, $7,785; Oak Forest, $7,763; Worth, $7,635; Markham, $7,539; Calumet Park, $7,632; Midlothian, $7,622; Chicago Ridge, $7,538; Blue Island, $7,458.

Also: Stickney, $7,369; Alsip, $7,307; Orland Park, $7,295; Palos Hills, $7,283; Hometown, $7,267; Lemont, $7,189; Joliet, $6,958; Lockport, $6,918; Posen, $6,781; Crest Hill, $6,726; Romeoville, $6,658; Wilmington, $6,301; Robbins, $4,491.

The basic constituents are meat, suet, and apples. Most recipes specify lean beef. My folks used pork. The "plain people" in Pennsylvania, pious Mennonites, used the most generous recipe of all. In addition to 4 boiled calf tongues, 2-1/2 lbs. suet, 6 lbs. chopped apples and 4 lbs. sugar, it called for 1/2 lb. citron, 2 lbs. raisins, 2 lbs. currants, 1/2 lb. each of candied orange and lemon peels, 2 grated nutmegs, cloves, cinnamon, allspice, chopped almonds, salt, the juice and rinds of 4 oranges and 4 lemons, one quart of brandy and two quarts of whiskey. This potent mixture was stored in a cool place at least four weeks before being used in pies.

The top three suburbs, Palos Heights with 50.5 per cent, Evergreen Park with 37.7, and Oak Lawn with 34.2 also led Southwest suburbs in the per cent of families with incomes over $10,000.
Southwest suburbs with the smallest percentage of families with incomes over $10,000 are Robbins, 4.7 per cent; Romeoville, 7.0 and Crest Hill, 14.7. Other Southwest suburbs with their per cent of families with $10,000 incomes or over are: Oak Forest, 26.2; Blue Island, 23.9; Tinley Park, 22.1; Lemont, 21.0; Worth, 20.4; Alsip, 18.0; Stickney, 17.9.
The median family income of suburban Northeastern Illinois municipalities of 2,500 population and over rose from $4,369 in 1949 to $8,158 in 1959, the commission reports.

Fire Safety Pointers

Care With Christmas Trees, Is Urged At Church Affair

Are you planning on having a Christmas tree at your church during the Christmas season? If so, the National Board of Fire Underwriters suggests that you follow these rules for fire safety:

1. Keep the tree outside until just before the holidays.
2. Set it up in a clear space in the room, never in a stairwell or under a balcony.
3. Use only electric lights to illuminate the tree. Never use candles.
4. Use only ornaments made of glass, metal or fire-resistant materials.
5. Check strings of electric lights, and discard any with frayed wiring or loose connections.
6. When decorating the church hall for the holidays, use only flameproof materials.
7. Turn out the lights when the church is vacant.
8. Take down the tree immediately after the holidays and discard it outside.

If you are planning a dinner or social evening at your church as a part of observance of Christmas, the National Board offers these suggestions for making your Christmas a fire-safe one:

1. The committee in charge of the event should make a thorough check of kitchen facilities at least a week in advance. The whole stove, including the oven, should be scoured to remove all grease.
2. If electrical equipment has not been checked recently, a qualified electrician should inspect refrigerators, freezers, fans and other electrical equipment to be sure it is in working order.
3. The kitchen should be equipped with self-closing metal containers for papers and trash. The containers should be emptied after the dinner.

4. A check should be made of all potential fire hazards, including the position of dish towels. Towel racks should never be placed in a position where the towels hang over an open flame.

If smoking is permitted at the affair, sufficient ashtrays should be provided. At the conclusion of the affair, someone should be made responsible for making certain that no cigarettes and cigars have fallen out of ashtrays or have been dropped on furniture or floors. All ashtrays should be emptied into a closed metal container before the church hall is closed.

Business & Finance

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND
In commenting on the sharp recovery of securities prices, from the lows of mid year, some analysts are taking to their history books.

Some of these gentlemen express belief that this country has been showing considerable inherent strength that is not directly indicated by any special economic change.

We came thru the shock of an abrupt and continued decline in securities markets while the business picture itself held to a high level of activity. In recent weeks, the severe market decline was followed by a wave of confidence in our economic position which has carried the top grade stocks to much higher levels. The intermediate grades of stocks have not shown the advance expected as yet.

The decline in market prices recently, does not add up to any substantial percentage of the sudden rise in values. Usually, a substantial rise of this sort, is followed by what is termed a consolidation action in which there is profit taking and also some liquidation of holders who desire change in investment positions.

Quite a number of investment men are of the opinion that there is quite a sizeable amount of institutional investment money that has been waiting to see if the decline will carry down further, before taking a strong investment position. We find that the investment services, best known to us, are taking a bullish attitude as to business and expressing a feeling of confidence in the position of our economy nationally and on a world wide basis.

As noted in the first paragraph, analysts are looking at history books for aid in their analytical efforts. There is no possible doubt that the constant threat of involvement with Russia, at some point in the world, was a business hazard that created economic nervousness in all the western world. The more sensational writers are noting that the Cuban victory over Russia may have far reaching results somewhat akin to the impact on England's position, by the victory over Napoleon at Waterloo.

A leading investment house which is held in good repute, has advertised a market study based on what they feel are epochal events and the economic effects. The events noted as historic in so far as their effect on political and economic advances of the western world, are:

- (1) Battle of Hastings - 1066;
- (2) Discovery of America - 1492
- (3) Declaration of Independence - 1776
- (4) Hitler's Defeat - 1945
- (5) Cuban Showdown - 1962.

Some of the financial commentators both in this country and abroad, have stated a belief that our world stature has changed radically from position in which we seemed to have no political direction, to one in which we are respected for willingness to take strong positions when the chips are down.

A feeling of confidence is very important in the business world and without it, business activity lives a cautious life which impedes progress.

Whether we like it or not a large portion of this world's people are not respectful of nations which turn the other cheek.

Hints For Homeowners

BY: JAMES FIZZEL, ASSOC. FARM ADVISER
Decorating our homes at Christmas time is a tradition which has grown up through the ages and had its beginning even before the first Christmas.

The custom of kissing under the mistletoe seems to stem from the ancient Greek marriage rites which used mistletoe, or possibly as a result of a centuries old rule in some countries that enemies became reconciled at the New Year. They would meet under the mistletoe and swear friendship for the coming year.

In many lands, holly was thought to protect the occupants of a home in which it was placed from witches, thunder and lightning. Evergreen boughs were a symbol of immortality. It is quite natural that these materials be formed into wreaths, which are themselves a symbol of victory and be placed at windows and doors for the Christmas season.

The use of flowers seems to stem from the legend relating how the plants, trees, and shrubs all burst into bloom on the first Christmas eve in Bethlehem.

The use of the Christmas tree is thought to have originated as a symbol of the Tree of Paradise in the Garden of Eden. The custom seems to have come to this country during the Revolution when homesick Hessian Soldiers erected trees to remind them of their homeland. The popularity of the custom has grown up mostly since the mid 1850's when the first Christmas tree was set up in the White House by President Franklin Pierce.

The Christmas ornaments we use in America have come to us from all parts of the world. Each new nationality group that migrated to this country brought with it some customs of its own.

The earliest decorations were simple and were made of the common berries and fruits in the area. Apples, oranges, nuts and strings of popcorn or cranberries still make up some of our most effective decorations.

You can keep your small children occupied during these last hectic days before Christmas by letting them make some decorations. Have them string cranberries and popcorn on long threads and drape them across the Christmas tree branches. Make popcorn balls and attach them to a loop of wire to be hung on the tree.

Paper chains or lanterns are favorites with children from each generation. Or have them make a toothpick tree by sticking picks into large gumdrops. A Christmas tree decorated with simple ornaments made by little hands has warmth and friendliness lacking in the steel and aluminum trees so common today.

Schmuhl Program Features Christmas Around World

Plans for the Christmas program at Schmuhl school have been made. The theme for this year will be "Christmas Around the World". Parents will have the opportunity of traveling from room to room where the children will display their talents in art, music and drama in keeping with the International Christmas spirit.

Rather than have a small Christmas tree for each room, one large tree will be placed in the hall. Decorations will be made by the children of the school.

A grab bag in each room will be the manner in which gifts will be exchanged among the children.

Parents of boys are requested to buy a boys gift and after wrapping it label it "boy". Parents of girls are requested to do the same, labeling it "girl". In this way there will be the correct number of boy and girl gifts.

Girl Scout Troop 375 met Thursday afternoon at Schmuhl school, and finished working on their Christmas gifts. They make plans for a Christmas party for the troop, and their will be a grab bag gift for each girl.

The next board meeting will be held Dec. 19 at 7:30 at Schmuhl school. Anyone having any questions they wish considered at a meeting are requested to present such questions to the clerk, William Hocker, in writing, 24 hours in advance of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mattes will go to Chicago for the holidays to be with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mattes and family Christmas eve and Christmas morning. For dinner Christmas day they will go to the home of his mother Mrs. Anna Mattes also in Chicago, for a family gathering.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heitman and family will have as their holiday guests, her brother, and sister in law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook and family of Homer, and her niece Mr. and Mrs. John Smolik of Northridge, Calif.

end Russia therefore profess neutrality. The Soviets and their satellites plus the Communist sympathizing so-called neutrals would "pick our bones" when the show-down comes.

U Thant, the secretary general of the UN is a Buddhist and admitted Marxist. The president of the world court is Mr. Winarski, who is a Polish Communist. The secretary of the Security council is, has been since the birth of the UN and always will be a Russian, Nikita has said, "Promises are like pie crusts -- made to be broken."

Neighbors, it is a crooked card game, the cards are marked and stacked. I do not believe that any of us would like for OUR GREAT COUNTRY to be thrown into this "lion's den," the United Nations. The age of miracles is past, so -- do not think that you can be saved, as was Daniel when he was "cast to the cats."

It is not too late, yet, we must write to our Senators -- Paul H. Douglas and Everett M. Dirksen, Washington, D.C. Tell them that you would appreciate their vote against all disarmament proposals and further that you do not approve of our continued membership in the Communist dominated United Nations which is a threat to our sovereignty as a nation and our lives as FREE MEN.

Let us fight for a REAL "Disturbed" does make an excellent point in the letter. Elected and appointed officials in any community should be better acquainted with, and available to the people.

I personally, and I believe I speak for all the township officials, am available and will be pleased to appear at any function, before any group or organization for discussion of township or county operations and problems.

Sincerely,
George J. Tate
Supervisor, Frankfort Twp.

A RUSSIAN TRAP

Dear Sir:

As a result of the passage of federal law 87-297 the Arms Control and Disarmament Act in September of 1961, we are swiftly approaching the surrender of not only arms BUT OUR SOVEREIGNTY as a NATION to the United Nations. This law was the consent of congress for the president and/or our state department to offer the outline of basic provisions of a treaty on general and complete disarmament in a peaceful world, at the conference in Geneva on April 18, 1962. Coincidentally, these plans are the same as were proposed by Khrushchev in 1959, to the UN. Between 1959 and 1961, our state dept. adopted the Russian line of thought, for placing the World's military forces under UN control, which reads as follows--

- (a) Disbanding of armed forces, dismantling of military establishments, including bases, cessation of the production of armaments --
- (b) Elimination of all stockpiles of nuclear, chemical, biological and other weapons;
- (c) Elimination of all means of delivery of weapons of mass destruction;
- (d) Abolition of the organizations and institutions designed to organize the military efforts of states (nations), cessation of military training and closing of all military institutions; and
- (e) Discontinuation of military expenditures.

Should these stupid proposals be accepted in Geneva. The treaty would doubtlessly be ratified by two-thirds of the senators present. A selected group could be assembled on short notice and the Treaty sanctioned. Then the provisions will be carried out, in three steps.

Step one -- We will begin a 30% reduction of armament, such as bombers and fighter planes, Missiles (defensive and offensive), Navel craft etc. This armament will be deposited with The International Disarmament Organization (IDO) and destroyed.

Step two -- There will be further reduction of armament and the United Nations peace force will be organized. We will furnish a specified quota of manpower and armament. The parties to the treaty will accept the International Court of Justice which will decide all international disputes.

Step three -- We will abolish the U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force as well as the related military training establishments, West Point, Annapolis and the Air Academy will be closed.

The United Nations has a membership of 110 nations, 55 of these are the newly formed under-developed countries, with a combined population equal to that of the United States, yet can cast votes 55-1 against us. Most of them are the beggars to whom we have given billions in aid or loans. We cannot count on their voting with us for fear that they might off-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

EXPLAINS ZONING

Dear Sir:

The letter published in your column (12-13-62) criticizing the Will county zoning board of appeals, the Will county board of supervisors and myself for our action on the request of Futuristic Homes, Inc. for an R1 classification does not present a true statement of the facts.

The Will County Zoning Ordinance under Sec. 7-"F" District (farming and agricultural) paragraph 2 states that one of the uses permissible under this classification is "All uses permitted in 'R1' District." Under our present zoning ordinance, "R1" is the highest or most restrictive land uses of all classifications. Uses permissible under "F" classification could be highly objectional to people living in residential areas. Therefore, it follows that while land in "F District" may be subdivided for residential use without rezoning, the "R1 Class" is imperative wherever this land use is indicated. While on the surface it appears that our action was contrary to the wishes of the planning committee, we are in effect protecting the interests and welfare of the people of Frankfort township with this more restricted zoning.

"Disturbed" is also confused in his statement that the hearing before the Board of Supervisors was "necessary because of written protests." ALL requests for rezoning in unincorporated areas MUST come before the board for final action. The zoning board of appeals conducts preliminary hearings in the area where the requests originate for the purpose of hearing any residents of the area, pro or con. After investigation of the properties and consideration of all facts brought before them, they make their recommendations to the Board for their acceptance or rejection. Any person interested in rezoning petitions before the board of supervisors is granted the privilege of being heard before final action is taken.

I have stated on numerous occasions that the need for industry in Frankfort township is of prime importance for our economical stability. I have met with representatives of both plan committees and have pledged my cooperation, both as an elected official and resident, in whatever manner I can be of assistance.

The Mokena VFW Post is holding an open invitation to all in Arbury Hills as well as the Mokena area to attend their Smorgasbord dinner to be held on Dec. 31, New Year's eve, from 10:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m. at their VFW Hall on Wolf Road. Tickets for the affair can be obtained at the door that evening for the price of $3 per couple.

It is NOT necessary to be a member of this organization in order to attend the dinner.

There are two more Brownie Scout programs on the agenda both on the same day.

Mrs. Charles Rogal with her co-leader Mrs. Betty Sipin, held their investiture ceremony last Tuesday, Dec. 18 at the Rogal home at 9415 West Hickory st.

In addition to the investiture, there was also a Christmas program presented along with refreshments and a grab bag. The program was held after school with the mothers of the girls also invited to attend.

Brownie Scout Troop Number 103 under the leadership of Mrs. Richard Heim and her co-leader Mrs. Byron Skinner, held a combination First Birthday and Christmas Party at the home of Mrs. Osuch of 19609 Poplar, on Tuesday, Dec. 13.

The girls were presented with their one year pins in the presence of their mothers, who had been invited to witness the ceremony which was held in the early evening.

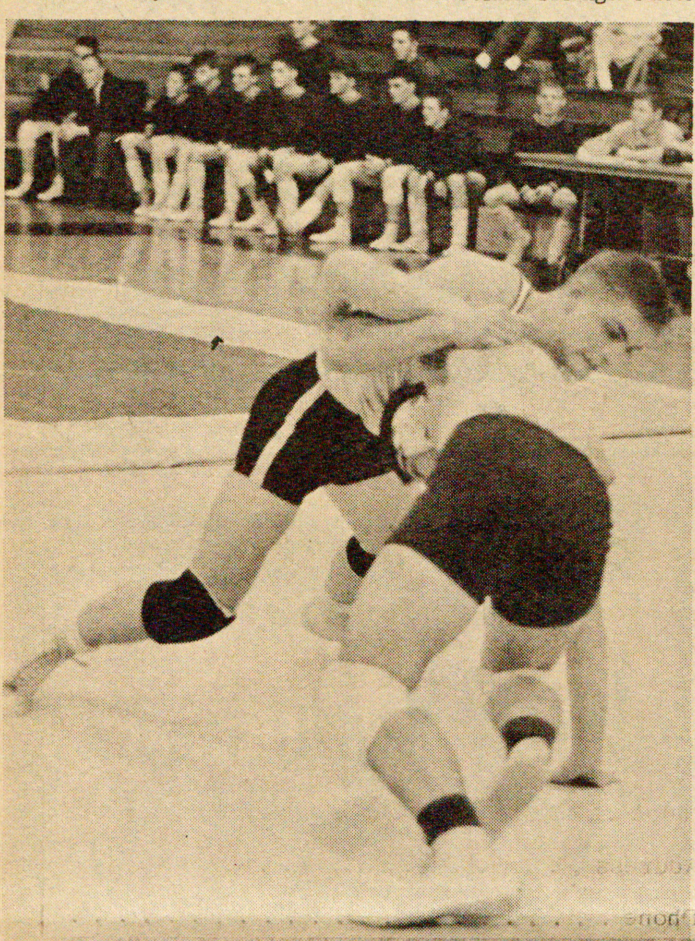

The girls presented a living Nativity scene which included songs and poems by the children. There were games played and refreshments served to all. The Brownies gave their mothers the hand made wreath which they themselves had made as a gift.

The holiday spirit will continue with the girls touring Arbury Hills while they sing Christmas carols. This will take place tomorrow evening, Friday, Dec. 21 beginning at 6:30 p.m. The mothers also have been invited to join in the caroling with their daughters that evening.

The Arbury Hills Civic Association will have Santa Claus enthroned in the partially completed garage of the Heim home at 9431 West Hickory st, from 12 noon to 4 o'clock on Sunday, Dec. 23. He will present each child with a small candy treat after talking with the little one.

GIDDYUP -- Will Radell of Downers Grove treats Al Grossman of Sandburg a bit roughly in the heavyweight match of a meet held between the two schools at Orland Park Dec. 14. Radell edged Grossman 1-0 in this match and Downers slipped by Orland 23-18. Golden Triangle Photo

Brownie Troop 334 Holds Investiture: 14 Members

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Mokena 5740

Brownie Scout Troop Number 334, under the leadership of Mrs. Nestor Albor, and Mrs. Lee Ann Blecha as co-leader, held their investiture at the home of Mrs. Leonard Gunty of 9431 West Elm Avenue on Friday evening, Dec. 7.

Thirteen of the fourteen girls of the Troop were present, with Debbie Broekstra absent because of chicken pox.

The girls invested in the Brownie organization that evening, with their mothers present to witness the ceremony were: Cindy Albor, Leah Cullison, Vicky Cumbee, Diane Gunty, Marie Ann Hovi, Susan Kilgore, Marlene Muccio, Nancy Lee Mroz, Wanda Mullen, Michelle Nyder, Jeanie Osuch, Jaci Rochelle and Merry White.

After the ceremony the girls served their mothers, and themselves refreshments. Young Debbie Broekstra was invested privately at a latter Brownie meeting, when she had recovered.

Troop 334 will be out Christmas caroling on Friday, Dec. 21 all around Arbury Hills; and will return to the Hovi home for hot cocoa and cookies afterwards.

A special thank you to Mrs. William Kilgore of 9437 West Elm ave. for her assistance in making up copies of the words of the Christmas carols for the girls and in helping them practice their singing.

There was a turnout of approximately 40 people for the Summit Hill Parent-Teacher group holiday program meeting.

The Lincoln-Way high school choral group, consisting of one boy soloist and seven girls, sang both the conventional Christmas carols and a few of the unusual ones.

The group also had the audience join in a community sing of the most popularly known carols.

Following the program there was a short business meeting.

The monthly award for the room having the most parents present at the meeting was Miss Gibbs' fourth grade.

The plans are now completed for the annual school Christmas party to be held tomorrow (Friday) at the school. Santa Claus will be present, and there will be refreshments served and a grab bag of gifts distributed to the children.

Following the meeting the executive board acted as hostesses and served the refreshments of coffee and Christmas cookies.

Supt. H. James Wrath, gave the parents a tour of the classrooms to view the decorations for Christmas made jointly by the teachers and the students.

The next meeting of the Parent-Teacher Group will take place at the school on Thursday evening, Jan. 10. At that time there will be a speaker, Mrs. Kroch, from the Manhattan School for the educable mentally handicapped. This is a public school which draws from all of the Lincoln-Way school district.

The fifth grade mothers will act as hostesses for this January meeting.

The Summit Hill Boy Scout Troop 10, at their meeting two weeks ago, completed plans for an all-day hike. The boys were taken to Joliet with their day packs, and the hike proceeded from there. Each boy was to provide his individual meal which he had to also prepare. Simplicity seemed to be the order of the day for the meal, and with the average cast iron stomach of a boy, all fared well after the experiment in cooking.

The troop held its Christmas party yesterday with refreshments being served and an exchange of grab bag gifts.

The boys have also completed a major project of the making of hand constructed leather wallets. The boys worked with the leather themselves including hand tooling, hand carving, and hand lacing of the wallet.

LINCOLN-WAY DANCE BAND made up of members of the regular high school band made their first public appearance recently when they provided the music for a dance given for the upper grade pupils of Frankfort grade school. The dance was held in the school gymnasium. Larry Cullison, (at the microphone) assistant to Band Director Robert Taylor, is the leader of the dance band. There are 15 members in the dance band. One could say 14 Boys and a Girl, the girl being Carol Hammond, of New Lenox, who plays piano. The music at the Frankfort party was well liked. (semmler Press photo)

Indicated Officials Win Another Delay In Court

(CNS) There was further legal maneuvering in the Stickney Conspiracy proceedings, Friday.

Defense attorneys filed two new motions, one to suppress all electronic evidence and one to quash the grand jury indictment. The defense claimed that the indictment was true-billed of illegal (i.e. electronic) evidence.

The seven officials charged with conspiring to bill Stickney township of $250,000 are Marvin Kurth, 47, former township Republican committeeman; Edward J. Tomek, 52, township clerk; Louis Cech, 63, Robert F. Korycki, 33, Harold Cure-vitz, all members of the board of auditors; Joseph J. Perecky 46, highway commissioner; and Dominick Prohm, 33, member of the high school board.

Judge Irving S. Landesman granted a delay to Tuesday to study the motions. However Judge Landesman seemed to take a dim view of the proceedings.

"I'm not going to become part of a stalling procedure," the judge said. "Any further motions will be treated as they deserve."

Judge Landesman noted that the first anniversary of this case has passed. "This has gone just about far enough without action," the judge said.

The original indictment came about when "Robert L. Smith, Chairman of Stickney Board of Auditors, secreted about himself an electronic device at a meeting of the Stickney Township council."

Security Tax To Increase

The social security tax increase in January is no secret in this area.

A little salmon-colored slip of paper made available to the industries of the community this week by the Joliet Social Security district office resulted in an avalanche of requests for enough copies to accompany pay checks. It tells the wage earner that his tax for social security will be up one-half of one per cent - up to three and five-eighths per cent. In other words, a wage earner who earns $100 per week now has $3.12 taken out for social security. After the first of the year the tax will be $3.63.

Harold Whiteside, manager of the Social Security office, says that some 10,000 copies of the tax slip have been mailed to employers in the past week, and that anyone wishing them for his employees can telephone or write for them.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

There will be prizes awarded for Christmas lighting contests in Mokena, Frankfort and New Lenox next week. In each community there is no necessity of making formal entry. The judges will view every home and business place that has outside decorations.

Salvation Army Motto: "Share With Others"

When a father, so beset with emotional problems of his own that he can't think of the needs of his children, loses his job two weeks before Christmas, where does his wife turn for help?

When a man, after 23 homeless years, finally conquers his alcoholic problem and wants to see his family again, who will help him find them?

When a hospitalized child cries at night for a doll of her own, who will provide it?

These pleas, and many others, are heard and answered by The Salvation Army each year at Christmas time. The diversity of the requests reflect the many facets of The Salvation Army's ministry to people in trouble; and the compassion with which the requests are met reflects a tradition of sharing with others.

Why has this unique Army dedicated itself to providing for the spiritual and physical needs of others? The founder of The Salvation Army, General William Booth, summed up the philosophy of love that motivates the Army when, at the turn of the century, he drafted a special message of encouragement to Salvationists throughout the world. The longer the cablegram grew, the more General Booth thought of the expense of sending it and how the money could be used instead to feed and shelter the needy. After struggling to encompass the compassion, aims and ideals of the members of The Salvation Army in a short phrase, he finally chose one word. The word he cabled was: "Others".

To many people The Salvation Army is mainly the musical quartets grouped around the bright red kettles of Christmas. These kettles, which were originated to provide food for shipwrecked mariners in San Francisco, first graced the New York landscape in the mid-1890s. In order to provide a holiday meal for 25,000 people The Salvation Army appealed for help to the people of New York and was rewarded with overflowing kettles. The food secured through the kettle contributions was packed in 5,000 baskets, each containing enough for five persons, and distributed so that families could share a Christmas dinner at home.

The shopping list for this endeavor listed among many other things: 5,000 loaves of bread; 5,000 packages of biscuits; 5,000 four-pound chickens; 5,000 cans of baked beans; 5,000 cans of evaporated milk; 2,500 pounds of coffee; 5,000 pounds of sugar; and 55,222 pound of potatoes. In addition, out of those remarkable Christmas kettles, came 6,450 toys and 3,500 oranges for a children's party for which two large Christmas trees were made by wiring together 172 small ones.

That same year, hot dinners were also provided at the Grand Central Palace for 2,200 hungry, homeless men. These were served by 250 Salvation Army officers and soldiers, who in their dedication to serving others, had given up a family Christmas to better serve the larger family of man.

This tradition of sharing Christmas with others is a basic tenet of The Salvation Army and the Christmas dinners continue to be served to homeless men and women throughout the world. But today, The Salvation Army more often provides a grocery check rather than a food basket so that a family may enjoy a holiday dinner at home and utilizes other means to brighten Christmas for less fortunate families. In addition, The Salvation Army provides festivities for men and women in uniform, plans parties for those without friends and families, visits the lonely aged, gives toys to hospitalized children, serves hot dinners to the homeless, and brings gifts and the warmth of friendship into cold prison cells and to the prisoner's troubled family at home. At Christmas time, especially, these dedicated men and women work to illumine the "dark corners" of life with the bright lights of faith and hope.

The Salvation Army is more than a "once-a-year" friend. At Christmas its ministry is extended to include a few extra joys. While in many home ways it carries on the traditional work of giving gifts, messages and parties in the spirit of Christmas, it works all year round to build solid foundations for a strong society through close family relationships, and to aid people whatever their problems may be.

From its neighborly beginnings of those with little helping those with less, today, with cities constantly expanding in size and complexity, The Salvation Army has kept pace by using modern techniques to discover and fight ancient social ills. In cities, where it is difficult to know your neighbor, much less his needs, The Salvation Army is working to bring comfort and ease to those less fortunate. In addition to places of worship, The Salvation Army maintains clinics, general hospitals, maternity homes and hospitals for unmarried mothers, children's homes and foster care service, settlements and day nurseries, emergency lodges for women and children, centers for transient and homeless men, correctional service bureaus for aiding prisoners and their families, bureaus for locating missing friends and relatives, employment services, boys' clubs, summer camps, Red Shield and Salvation Army-USO centers for members of the armed forces, emergency disaster services, residences for business women, services to the aging, rehabilitation centers for alcoholics, and similar allied services.

In these institutions and through these services, The Salvation Army aims at rehabilitating people spiritually, morally, physically, mentally and socially, returning them whole to the environment that once defeated them. The Army's goal is to make those who come seeking aid capable of helping themselves and eventually of helping others. The word "others" stands today, as it did half a century ago, for the service of the dedicated men and women who wear the red and blue uniform of The Salvation Army.

Christmas Trees To Eat

One of the nicest things about Christmas is the fun of preparing and enjoying special holiday foods. Among these, Cotton Candy Christmas Trees should rank high on the list of favorites, for they look as inviting as a gaily wrapped gift and taste every bit as good as they look. Each little "tree" is a sweet confection of tender tinted rice, dates, nuts, cherries and whipped cream. The combination is one to please both the youngsters and the grownups.

The homemaker who likes to cook will find these delightful to make. The light and fluffy mixture is held together with gelatin. The trick of molding into the tree shape is a simple one; the mixture is turned into cone-shaped paper cups, and the cups are then placed in small glasses so they stand upright while they are chilling.

Because rice desserts have special appeal for, and are extra good for, children, this one may be served the year around. Simply use maraschino cherries of one color only, and tint the rice with a different food color if you like. Chill the mixture in several small or one large mold of any desired shape, or turn it into a large serving dish to chill. But, for hearty dinners of Yuletide, the recipe as given makes a most appropriate, attractive and light dessert.

COTTON CANDY CHRISTMAS TREES

- 1 1/2 cups hot cooked rice (cooked with 1/2 teaspoon red food coloring)
- 1/4 teaspoon almond flavoring
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1/2 cup chopped dates
- 1/2 cup chopped red maraschino cherries, drained
- 1/2 cup chopped green maraschino cherries, drained
- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup liquid from red maraschino cherries
- 1 pint heavy cream, whipped
- 8 to 10 whole maraschino cherries
- 8 to 10 cone-shaped paper cups

Add almond flavoring to hot rice and set aside to cool. Add sugar, nuts, dates and cherries. Soften gelatin in liquid from cherries. Heat over hot water until dissolved. Stir into the rice mixture. Fold in whipped cream.

Place a maraschino cherry in the bottom of each cone-shaped paper cup. Spoon rice mixture into cups. Set each cup in a small glass to secure position. Refrigerate for about 2 hours until set.

When ready to serve, remove paper cups and set on serving plates. If desired, pipe extra whipped cream around the base of each tree and sprinkle with silver shot. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Young of Orland are being congratulated on the birth of their first grandchild, a girl, on Dec. 4 at Silver Cross Hospital Joliet. She weighed 6 lbs. 11oz. and has been named Tracy Jean. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Giggelman who reside in Midlothian.

Sunday, Dec. 16th at St. Michael's church, at 2 p.m., the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Barker, was christened Laura Lee. An aunt Lillian Henning and uncle Robert Borkowski were god-parents. An open house party for friends and family followed the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Borkowski grandmother and Mrs. Veronica Marzec great-grandmother were among the guests.

Mrs. Dale Paulas is a patient at St. Francis Hospital, Blue Island for observation.

Tony Karas is home after an 8-day stay at the hospital following an injury to his leg while practicing football at Carl Sandberg High school.

30 second grade children of Miss Mary Ginder's room and Mr. J. Callahan, Principal, were guests of Mrs. Mabel Ekberg, Friday afternoon, to see the Christmas decorations. As Mrs. Ekberg has many curios from foreign lands such as hand carved figures from Sweden, china from England etc., the children were curious to know all about them. So between Mrs. Ekberg, Miss Ginder and Mr. Callahan, they explained all about them, how they were made etc. Hot chocolate and cookies were served. The children sang Christmas carols on their way back to school.

The Orland 4-H Eager Beavers met Monday, Dec. 10 in the Methodist church with 21 present and 3 guests. President, Elaine Sheehan called the meeting to order followed by the 4-H pledge to Flag. Roll call and minutes were read. Mrs. Marvin Cooper, leader, talked about plans of the Agriculture and Home Economics Fair to be held at Fred Francis 4-H Field in New Lenox some time in July. Everyone seemed to be in favor of it.

The girls worked on Christmas craft. The club plan to visit Amling Flower land during the Christmas Holidays. Kathy Show and Claudia Kelsey served refreshments.

Next month Claudia and Betty Breitharth will serve refreshments. Demonstrations are on the program for next month.

At the Home Bureau meeting the awards will be announced on the Christmas kissing balls, which the girls had made.

The Orland Homemakers Extension Unit meeting was held at the Methodist Church, Friday, Dec. 14 with 23 members and 2 guests present. After the business, a Christmas gift exchange was held. Mrs. Florence Sayers and Mrs. Sally Cooper gave the lesson on yeast breads of other lands, and served these delicious breads which they had prepared.

The Orland Firemen were called to 10241 Hilltop Drive, Thursday evening where a spot light too close to drapes, ignited them causing damage to several household articles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heiting were dinner guests at the Jack Ivers home in Chicago, Sunday, honoring the birthday of Mr. Ivers. Mrs. Ivers is a sister to Mrs. Heiting.

Care Urged In Use Of Yule Lights

Residents of this area are experiencing again the beauty of the Christmas season as thousands of families extend their greetings through lighting. They find that both the inside and outside of the home offer limitless possibilities for expressing the spirit of the season in brightness and color.

Lighting engineers of Public Service Company point out that lighting decorations can be beautiful and inexpensive at the same time. A single string of outdoor lights, for example, can be used to provide an attractive frame for the doorway or the Christmas tree window. Even less complicated is the use of an outdoor floodlamp to illuminate a wreath on the door.

A simple but dramatic effect may be obtained by trimming outdoor evergreens with silver tinsel and lighting them with floodlights. Colored lenses over the bulbs enhance the beauty.

As millions of lights are turned on, Commonwealth Edison Company and its Public Service division will experience a winter peak demand for electricity. Home decorative lighting will make up the major part of the extra Christmas load, which will reach an estimated 300,000 kilowatts -- the equivalent of three million 100-watt bulbs. The remainder of the special demand comes from ornamental lighting for stores, outdoor community displays and other attractions.

With the growing popularity of lighting and decorating the home is the tendency toward safe practices. Officials of the electric utility offer the following reminders for a Christmas without danger:

- Before use, check all lighting sets, cords and sockets for worn, broken or frayed parts.
- Keep all lights disconnected while they are being attached to trees, the house or decorative props.
- In trimming the tree, take care to keep metallic objects away from electrical connections.
- Don't plug too many lights into one outlet.
- If an overload blows a fuse, reduce the load. Don't replace a blown fuse with one of higher amperage.
- Outside the home use only weatherproof lighting equipment and heavy duty rubber extension cords.
- Throughout the Christmas season, turn off all decorative lighting before retiring or when the family leaves the home.

Only one man comes around the "satellite" compressor stations on our natural gas pipeline... and he's a caretaker—for these stations are unmanned. Their operation is regulated by push buttons in manned stations miles away. There are a growing number of these electronically operated satellite stations on our system, some of which are located as far as 1200 miles from their control centers.

These remotely-controlled power units provide another economical way to meet the varying day-to-day needs of our natural gas customers. As the leading pipeline of energy, we make use of every tool that can help reduce the cost of moving energy from source to market. Automation, as represented by our satellite stations, is one of the most promising ways we have found to keep gas transmission costs down. Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Houston, Texas.
